Mastering efficient liquidity management

On our recent HSBC webinar, you can listen to the replay here, we polled over 70 corporates on their perspectives around their visibility and control over their liquidity and here are the results:

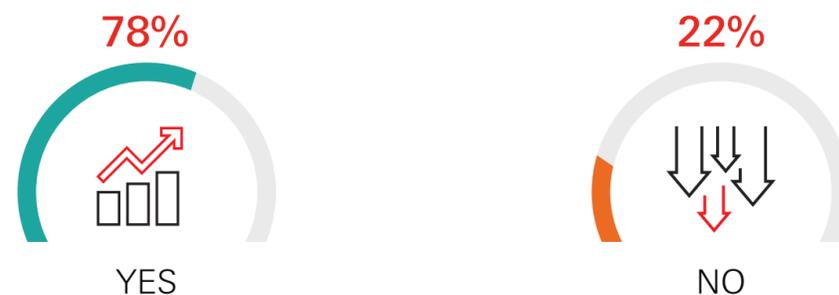

How much do you plan to continue to use digital channels for banking?

How often do you use HSBCnet for viewing

Over the last 3 months, have you started using more digital channels for banking?

For a corporate treasurer, which of these are
